BATHS.

Bathing here, by the plan adopted, is brought into fair competition with that at naturally warm and hot springs. The water, heated in the both tob by steam pipes, the heat not being raised high enough to precipitate its sails, is applied to the surface of the bather without the loss of any of its saline ingredients. The buildings are substantial and convenient. The grounds, embracing about 150 acres, divided between lawn and woodland, are bracking blue of finto walks and drives. A Telegraph Office has been permanently established, connecting the Springs with all parts of the country. A Livery, well stocked with horses and carriages, is attached to the place. LEWELLYN PARK is a tract of 500 acres of land, beautifully situated on the eastern slope of Eagle Ridge, (Orange Mountain,) with a surface finely diversified, einbracking deep ravines, hold, rocky cliffs, brooks of the purest spring water, picturesque old oaks, beeches, and tulps, and a noble forest of the various native evergreen and decidoons trees.

It is laid out and embellished with drives, walks, etc., in the modern, natural style of landscape gardening, and 50 acres have been deeded in trust for the exclusive use and enjoyment of the purchasers of the land lying within the Park; and the remainder of the land has been divided into Villa Sites of from 5 to 10 Acres Fig. 1.

ACRES FACE.

It was selected with special reference to the wants of citizens doing business in the city, and yet wishing accessible, retired, and healthful homes in the country. Sloping to the south-east, the best exposure for health, cultivation, and protection from the winds of Winter, it is favorably situated to catch the southerly hreczes which prevail in Summer.

The whole tract abounds in pure, soft, spring water.

It is believed that no spot within twenty miles of New-York is, in all respects, so healthy as the side of this mountain. It is almost the only locality so near the city where there is no fever and agree.

This natural penersma is acknowledged by all to be one of the finest in America. Lieweilya Park is distant from New-York City thirteen miles, or less than one hour, via Morris and Essex Railroad, from the foot of Contlandt-st. The following trains per day, each way: For Orange Leave New-York at 8.30 and 11.30 a. m., 1, 2, 3.30, 5.10 and 6.30 p. m.

For New-York—Leave Orange at 3.25, 6.35, 7.40, 3.55, 9.06, and 10.35 a. m.; 1, 45, 3.30, 3.54, 6.24, and 7.20 p. m.

Also, via New-Jersey Railroad, and the Orange Stages, the hours of departure are as follows, via:

Leave Orange, at the corner of Cone and Maine-sts, for New-ark and New-York, at 5.35, 6.50, 7.30, 5.25, 9.25, 11.25 a. m.; 12.5, 2.25, 3.45, 4 15, 5.10, 5.45, 6.55, 3.30, 5.25, p.m.

For ease of access, heauty and variety of scenery, for health-foliases of climate, for the intelligence and moral order of its population; in short, for all those considerations which combine to render a region effective as a family residence, it is believed that the vicinity of Orange, especially the mountain side, pos-population; in short, for all those considerations which combine to render a reviou attractive as a family residence, it is believed that the vicinity of Orange, especially the mountain side, possesses advantages not surpassed, if equaled, by any other place in the vicinity of New York.

DR. CHARLES ALBERT, FROM PARIS, No. 540 BROADWAY, NEW-YORK, alles le consulter.

LECTRICITY takes effect in such a vast number of disease, that it bids fairer to cure every disease incident to the human body than anything else is the world. " While thousands have received unspeakable good. I have not known one man, woman or child who has ever been injured thereby; so that when. I hear any talk of the danger of being electrified. I cannot but impute it to a great wan of sense or honesty. " Upon the whole, one may pronounce it the Desideratum—the general and rarely-failing remedy."—

[John Wesley.

The above testimony, from one whose acknowledged wisdom and plety is known and read of all men, is daily confirmed by Dr. PHELPS, Electrician,
